A brilliant, but ugly manBy christopher m mathewsThis is Rostand's masterpiece, telling the story of the heroic free spirit as an outcast in the physical world. A brilliant, but ugly man, in love with a beautiful woman, who tries to win her, not for himself, but for his handsome, yet stupid, rival. You can just imagine all the conflicts that arise, between the protagonists, and within the souls of each. Does our hero achieve his values? Read and find out...
