JoDa Hodge : Departed Harvest Business Plan before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Departed Harvest Business Plan:

Departed Harvest business plan by JoDa Hodge

About the Author JoDa Hodge was born on Vermont's Bean Hollow Commune in 1976. This off-the-grid community served as his inspiration for Departed Harvest. A University of Vermont alum, JoDa graduated with degrees in Psychology, English, and Communications, then was a cameraman and producer for WCAX-TV News in Burlington, Vermont. After riding solo cross-country on his Harley, JoDa published Freedom Road, a travel memoir about the broken American Dream. Over the next six years, JoDa wrote 13 one-hour episodes of the dark comedy Departed Harvest, winning the 2011 American International and the 2011 Rhode Island Film Festival Screenplay Competitions. JoDa's acting experience includes being Vermont's Number One Short Film Star and appearing in the TV series, Windy Acres. He also starred in The Eagles, a feature he wrote, produced and directed. In 2012, JoDa published five new books, including Sex and Death, Hog, Porn Babe: The Unauthorized Biography of My Ex: Josi Valentine, I Dated A Porn Star and I Dated A Porn Star: Part 2. In addition, he edited and published two books for clients: The Girl With the Four Letter Name and Pastoral Proverbs. JoDa is a graduate of Ken Rotcop's Screenwriter's workshop held in Los Angeles. He is also a member of a weekly development lab for professional comedy screenwriters. Today JoDa resides in LA volunteering for charities, operating his boutique ghost-writing, editing, graphic design, publication and videography service, JoDa.TV; developing Departed Harvest; a one-hour medical-police comedy TV series, Hard Power; and the features Hippie Bus, Mermaid Island, Cat and Mouse, Heaven's Door, and How to Survive the End of the World.
