From Greenwood : Directory of African Film-Makers and Films (Studies in Social Welfare Policies) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Directory of African Film-

Makers and Films (Studies in Social Welfare Policies):

The richness and color of African cinema have been neglected for too long and its many talented film-makers deserve full recognition. This new and unique book gives detailed information on over 300 major African and Arab film-makers from the main film-producing countries: Algeria, Burkina Faso, Egypt, Ethiopia, Ghana, Guinea-Bissau, Ivory Coast, Madagascar, Mali, Senegal, Somalia, Tanzania, Tunisia, and Zaire. It also includes important film directors from Southern African states--Angola, Mozambique, Zimbabwe and others--as well as from other African republics. Each entry gives details of the film-maker's career and a complete list of films made. Two extensive indexes arrange film-makers by country and list some 5,000 film titles, in both the original language and English. An important addition is the chronology of African cinema, giving a bold summary of its growth over the last thirty years.

... "Since this directory provides such an admirable ready reference source on such a large number of African film-makers, it is recommended for large public libraries and academic libraries supporting programs in film or African-American studies. Impressive in scope, it covers 29 countries across Africa and includes much information that is scattered or elsewhere unavailable...." -Choice? ...
