4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Not funny at allBy Leslie GobbelNot funny. Most of stories didn't make sense. This book was purchased after reading excerpts on a Facebook post that gave this title but none of excerpts were in the book. There are other books of courtroom conversations that are supposed to be funny so maybe it's one of those.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. OUTSTANDINGBy BrittanyThis book was awesome! As a pre-law student, it was awesome to see just how much disorder there actually is within the courts! This book contained too many laughs to counts as well as humorous illustrations. It was a phenomenal book and would make a superb "stocking stuffer" or small gift for anyone. It was such a joy to read I look forward to more. I can't wait for Marcelle Boren's next publication.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Jennifer CiveroloOK

The quotes contained in this book are things real people actually said, word for word, under oath in legal court proceedings and are forever immortalized in the public record. This fully illustrated, cartoon panel book brings these humorous quotes to life! It is true that lawyers and witnesses say the darndest things! Please enjoy a good laugh at their expense.

About the AuthorMarcelle Boren is an editor, author and inventor. Marcelle has been an editor in the legal field for over a decade, editing countless documents with great attention to detail. With a passion of looking for laughter in all of lifes experiences, she used this focus to find gems of humor hidden within the mundane. This book is a collection of those gems. Marcelle grew up in the Cross Timbers of Oklahoma and has lived the majority of her adult life in the foothills of the Huachuca Mountains in Sierra Vista, Arizona. She currently resides in Hinesville, Georgia with her husband Michael, a 23-year veteran. For more information about Marcelle, please visit her website at marcelleboren.com.
