Researched and written in Ireland. An exciting adventure tale that happens to be true. The battle scenes are impressive but the character relationships and the tenderness expressed in the midst of a war zone is truly moving.

Easter Rising tells the dramatic minute-by-minute account of a heroic band of rebels who faced the might of the British Empire in 1916 Dublin. The Irish rebel leader, Patrick Pearse, perished in front of an English firing squad, however, his actions led to the eventual formation of a modern independent Ireland. Easter rising brings history to vibrant, flaming life.

About the Author Brian Gordon Sinclair is the author of a seven play epic that reveals a previously unknown Ernest Hemingway. The plays are written under the overall title of The Hemingway Monologues: An Epic Drama of Love, Genius and Eternity. Each play, in sequence, has its own title: Sunrise, The Lost Generation, Death in the Afternoon, The Man-Eaters, The Death Factory, Sunset (originally In Deadly Ernest) and Hemingways HOT Havana. The Hemingway Monologues read like a brilliant, intimate and revealing memoir. You will believe that Ernest Hemingway is talking to you.
