Langman : ENCY AMER WAR FILMS (Garland Reference Library of the Humanities) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised ENCY AMER WAR FILMS (Garland Reference Library of the Humanities):

From Library JournalThe authors' aim is to include a listing for every film made in the United States from 1898 through 1988. With almost 2000 entries (most containing major credits and plot synopsis with a soupcon of critical adjectives) certainly all the major and very possibly all the minor films would appear to be covered. Additional articles are provided on topical and historical subjects. The most helpful of three appendixes lists film titles according to the war they purport to show. (Where else would you find the titles of the two American films made concerning the Sanusi anti-British revolt?) The information included is reasonably accurate. Large libraries and special collections should consider purchase; smaller libraries should locate a copy of Lawrence H. Suid's less expensive Guts Glory: Great American War Movies (LJ 6/15/78) , which lacks this work's breadth, but has a lot more depth.- John Smothers, Monmouth Cty. Lib., Manalapan, N.J.
