This story is about a young lady who has traveled a bit and it has surprised her at the different places that she goes where someone farts. The story begins as it happened in real life-with someone letting a silent but deadly fart go in the line of a coffee shop that the author has named "Starbutts". The author, like everyone else in the line, looks at everyone in surprise that someone would do something so boldly in a public place. The author gets her drink and takes her laptop and begins her journey of recounting all of the different places that she has been where this has happened. The story is a true-life but absolute gut-wrenching tale of laughter that every family can enjoy (and can also probably relate too!) Join author Lynda K. White as she poetically tells her story so truefully named "Everybody Farts!" Author Bio: Author Lynda K. White's words are brought to life in this book by Emmy-Award winning Illustrator Kevin Riley. Kevin's work is featured at SeaWorld and on Discovery Kid's as Kenny the Shark. He recently completed The Beatles cinematic for the popular game Rock Band.
