BBC : I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue, Vol. 10 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue, Vol. 10:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great humor!By Pattipeg S. HarjoI listen to this BBC program on my computer, and always play it at least twice--I fall out of my chair laughing. So when my girlfriend learned she had cancer, I got her these CDs so she would laugh a lot--and she did. She recovered from the cancer, went back to teaching high school drama, and now uses some of the games she learned from the show with her students. Some of the humor is difficult to follow--it's very British-specific (surprise!), but it's still hilarious stuff. Highly recommend it to anyone who needs a laugh!

Often imitated but never bettered, Im Sorry I Havent a Clue is the only authentic antidote to panel games. After 35 years on air, this hardy perennial continues to bloom with inspired ad-libbing and wickedly improvised fun. This 10th collection finds unflappable chairman Humphrey Lyttelton giving silly things to do to regular panelists Tim Brooke-Taylor, Barry Cryer, and Graeme Garden, as well as special guests Jeremy Hardy, Ross Noble, Andy Hamilton, and Rob Brydon. Highlights include old favorites such as 'One Song to the Tune of Another,' '84 Chicken Cross Road,' 'Sound Charades,' 'New Definitions,' and of course the brilliantly baffling, fiendishly funny 'Morington Crescent.' So settle back and laugh yourself silly as Humph and the gang indulge in more organized mayhem and general hilarity, accompanied by Colin Sell on the piano and the lovely Samantha, who never fails to score.2 CDs. 2 hrs 37 mins.
