Faber and Faber books are one of my favorite resources for my young students. Many songs in Jazz Blues may be 75 years old but my 7 to 12 year old students enjoy the melodies, the rhythm and the lyrics, plus the transcription styles are level appropriate. The teacher duet sections enrich my students learning experience as the blended harmonies help them learn and appreciate the joy of performing with other musicians. I would recommend these books even for older beginning students. They are just plain fun.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Really nice set of duetsBy TeacherofSingingPiano instructor writing. Level 1 for student, advanced for accompaniment part. Really nice set of duets.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. person playing the melody lines is pretty much playing the same level as the beginner book. By a There is not much difference here from the first book in the series, except that the 2nd pianist parts are a bit more complicated. The person playing the melody lines is pretty much playing the same level as the beginner book. Very disappointing.

(Faber Piano Adventures). PlayTime Piano Jazz Blues is a fun collection of beginning jazz and blues pieces. The book offers a pleasing variety of sounds from soulful blues to jazz originals and standards and is a wonderful supplement for the late Level 1 piano student. The student will enjoy creating the sounds of jazz and blues while improving reading and rhythmic skills. Songs include: Jeepers Creepers * Ain't She Sweet * Moon River * and more.
