By andi
We've been a family that enjoys radio dramas and when I came across the first two seasons of Powder River at the library I had to give it a try. Being a fan of westerns I was thrilled to discover this series and follow it through the years as they were released on CD. This season is as wonderful as the first. The Colonial Radio Theatre keeps delivering with each season. I am a satisfied owner of all the seasons. They are wonderful for long car trips or as background as I work from home. Love them, think you will too.

This is the best series that Colonial Radio Theater makes - and they make sooooo many good programs. I cannot get enough of Powder River. I suggest you begin with Season 1 and continue. You will be hooked. Season 8 is due out soon on cd. Can't wait.

Love Powder River but this cd set has one cd that skips... I don't think I can exchange it.... I was too late.

Colonial's long running western series, Powder River, opens its 7th season with the three-part episode, "The Cattle on a Thousand Hills." Britt, Dawes, Doc, Matt, and Brad begin the cattle drive from Oklahoma to Clearmont, with the rustlers waiting for the right time to strike. In the two-part episode "The Wild West Show," Britt meets William (Buffalo Bill) Cody, an old friend who has just begun touring his Wild West Show. In "Pennies On A Dead Mans Eyes," Britt finds a dying stranger on the trail and brings him to Clearmont. Unable to speak and with no one knowing who he is, we live the stranger's entire life as it flickers before his eyes in his final moments, and in the two-part episode "The Fire," a careless act brings disaster to Clearmont in the Season 7 finale. Twelve exciting episodes are included in Season 7:
The Cattle On A Thousand Hills, Part 1
The Cattle On A Thousand Hills, Part 2
The Cattle On A Thousand Hills, Part 3
Our Bugles Sang Truce
The Wild West Show, Part 1
The Wild West Show, Part 2
The Map Of Legend
The Great Stagecoach Race
Pennies On A Dead Mans Eyes
The Rustlers
The Fire, Part 1
The Fire, Part 2
