4 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Horrible product. By futureprez This resembles a shoddy last minute middle school history project. Questions are repeated and answers are wrong. For example on a question for how many electoral votes is required to be president the answer on the card is 281. These simple mistakes bring the whole farce into question. They say the first incumbent president to lose is Taft when the first incumbent to lose was the second president...ever. How hard is that to get right? Also there are cases where the answers contradict other answers on other cards. You end up even doubting the questions to which you didn't know the answer. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. These Cards are Presidential! By trp These cards are great. Trivia galore! We had a large Family get together and busted out the cards and we went at it. They are great for quick nuggets on the history of the Presidents. Enjoy them!
