John Mitchinson, James Harkin, John Lloyd, Andrew Hunter Murray : QI: The Third Book of General Ignorance before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised QI: The Third Book of General Ignorance:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Raise Your Intelligence Quota!By Wayne ThorntonExplodes many popular understandings that you thought you knew. Informative and entertaining. Great!!!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Trick questionsBy Reader in the PacificI am a great fan of QI and all general knowledge books. This was no disappointment. So much what we have learnt in our youth was not the entire story. Thought and analysis is paramount. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy J HynesAlways makes you want to read it twice or more. Every page a mind expander.

The Third Book of General Ignorance gathers together 180 questions, both new and previously featured on the BBC TV programme's popular 'General Ignorance' round, and show why, when it comes to general knowledge, none of us knows anything at all. Who invented the sandwich? What was the best thing before sliced bread? Who first ate frogs' legs? Which cat never changes its spots? What did Lady Godiva do? What can you legally do if you come across a Welshman in Chester after sunset?

About the AuthorJohn Lloyd devised The News Quiz, Not the Nine O'Clock News, Spitting Image, and Blackadder. John Mitchinson is the original Marketing Director of Waterstone's, became Managing Director of Cassell and now runs Unbound.
